Example Speech to a Sister

[Bride's name], as my favorite member of the family (sorry mom and dad!), I am so happy to see you be full of joy on your wedding day. Through all of life's ups and downs, you and I have been there together. From sitting at the table doing homework to driving to school and arguing the whole way, you and I were team members from the start.

Now, you have a wonderful man in your life and I cannot imagine you without him. You two are a great match. Whenever I visit you and see you together, I notice you do kind things for one another, see how you live as a team, and get a tiny bit jealous of the love you have together. You and [husband's name] have built a life together that is exciting and fun!

When I saw you in your dress today, the whole "wedding" thing got real. You looked so happy and all you wanted to do was get down that aisle. I stood in the church and saw families from both sides all here to celebrate you and [husband's name]. This whole room is here to celebrate your love. You've found a man with values like yours, a wonderful family to marry into, and if I say so myself, [husband's name] is pretty lucky to have us too. You deserve all of this love and more, my kind and beautiful sister.

Out of all of your ups and downs, today is the happiest and most joyful I've ever seen you. Congratulations on your marriage. I look forward to see what the future has in store with you both. May your life be full of happiness, successes, and an unwavering love for one another.
