LOVE to KNOW

Dear ,

First, I want to tell you that I love you with all of my heart. You are such a loving, kind and strong child and your father/mother and I are so proud of you.

Sometimes life doesn't go as we planned. Mom/Dad and I never ended to part ways, but we strongly feel that living apart is how we can both be the very best parents to you.

Whether we live together in one home or apart in two homes, it is important that you know we are all still a family. Dad/Mom and I still love each other, still want the very best for you and believe that you will do great things in your life.

Anytime that you need us, we both promise to be there for you in any way we can. Never feel that you can not come to us over something. We are still your parents and will always be. You will forever come before anything else in this life.

Continue to be a kind, loving human being and know that this too shall pass. While things look very differently now, together we will all create a new normal.

Love Always,
Mom/Dad
