

Building a Christmas Snowman

Tristan woke up to the _____ news on Tuesday morning: there was going to be a snow day! His mom, Natalie, woke him up with a _____ snow day breakfast.
(ADJECTIVE)
(ADJECTIVE)
She had made chocolate chip _____ in the shape of a _____, with (BREAKFAST FOOD) (SHAPE)
plenty of maple syrup on top. Today was going to be a _____ day.
(ADJECTIVE)

After finishing breakfast, his dad, Corey, helped him bundle up so he could _____ (VERB)
in the snow. He put on his snow boots, zippered up his _____, and (ARTICLE OF CLOTHING)
wrapped the scarf around his _____ and face until all you could see were his (BODY PART)
eyes under his _____. He was ready to go!
(ARTICLE OF CLOTHING)

Outside, Tristan _____ got to work. With his _____ on his (ADVERB) (WARM ARTICLE OF CLOTHING) hands, he rolled the snow into smooth _____. He made one _____, (SHAPE, PLURAL) (ADJECTIVE)
one _____, and one small. After carefully stacking them together, his parents
(ADJECTIVE)
brought out a basket of _____ for the snowman. Natalie added two _____ (NOUN, PLURAL) (COLOR)
buttons for eyes, and Tristan put an orange carrot in the middle of the face for a
_____. Corey finished the face by adding tiny pieces of black coal for a _____ mouth.
(BODY PART)
(VERB -ING)

Tristan finished the snowman with a long _____ for a scarf. But wait! They forgot the hat! Natalie dashed into the house, picking up the first hat she found. It was Corey's _____. The snowman was perfect.
(NOUN)
(ADJECTIVE) (NOUN)