

Easy True or False Questions for Kids

Australia is the only country that is also an entire continent.

True

The American flag has 15 stripes.

False (It has 13 stripes.)

The body's largest organ is the liver.

False (It is your skin.)

The summer months in the Southern hemisphere are December through February.

True

Emus can fly.

False

The official language of Brazil is Spanish.

False (It is Portuguese.)

The Olympics are held every five years.

False (It is every two, but it used to be every four.)

Bats are mammals.

True

Vatican City is the smallest city in the world.

True

Timon's best friend is Simba.

False (It is Pumbaa.)

A watermelon is a type of berry.

True

Dolphins can drown.

True

A fig is a fruit.

False (It is actually a flower.)

The sun is a star.

True

Easy True or False Questions for Kids

Tomatoes are a vegetable.

False (They are a fruit.)

George Washington's middle name was Henry.

False (He had no middle name.)

Trees that lose their leaves each fall are called deciduous trees.

True

The hottest place on earth is Death Valley.

True

Bees have two wings.

False (They have four.)

Two is the only even prime number.

True

The largest planet in our solar system is Jupiter.

True

SpongeBob's best friend is Squidward.

False (It is Patrick.)

V comes before S in the alphabet.

False

Lightning can strike the same place twice.

True

Venus is the closest planet to Earth.

False (It is Mercury.)

True or False Questions for Kids About Animals

Platypuses are venomous.

True

Rodent teeth grow continuously.

True

Elephants can't jump.

True

The hippopotamus has the strongest bite in the animal kingdom.

False (It is the Nile Crocodile.)

Giraffes have three stomachs.

False (They have four.)

Goldfish don't have a stomach.

True

Lobsters pee out of their faces.

True

Koala babies eat their mom's poop.

True

Kangaroos have belly buttons.

False

Dalmations are born without spots.

True

Killer whales go through menopause.

True

Polar bears have gray colored skin.

False (It is black.)

There is a sea slug that can make its food through photosynthesis.

True

That same slug looks like a baby cow.

True

True or False Questions for Kids About Animals

Ostriches lay the largest eggs in the world.

False (The whale shark holds this title.)

Owls don't have eyeballs.

True (They have eye tubes.)

Rhino horns are made from dentine, a hard bony tissue.

False (They are made of keratin, the same protein as our fingernails.)

The Pacu fish has teeth like a human.

True

The longest-living vertebrate animal on the planet is the Galapagos Giant Tortoise.

False (It is the Greenland shark.)

Butterflies don't poop.

True

Clams have feet.

True

Snakes are the world's deadliest creature.

False (It is mosquitos.)

A cockroach can live without its head.

True (Their brain is in their abdomen.)

Bats have the same number of fingers and thumbs as a human.

True

A group of jellyfish are called a float.

False (They are called a smack, a bloom, a brood, or a swarm.)

Fun True or False Questions for Disney Fans

Belle is the only character in her village to wear blue.

True

Chester is the name of Alice's cat in Alice in Wonderland.

False (It is Dinah.)

Jasmine is the only Disney princess to wear pants.

False (Anna and Elsa wear pants in Frozen II.)

In The Little Mermaid, Ariel calls a tobacco pipe a dinglehopper.

False (That is what she calls a fork. She calls the tobacco pipe a Snarfblatt.)

The Sanderson sister's names are Winifred, Sandra, and Mary

False (Sarah is the second sister's name, not Sandra.)

The three good fairies in Sleeping Beauty are named Flora, Fauna, and Merryweather.

True

At the ball, Cinderella's shoe falls off her right foot.

False (it was the left.)

There are five Toy Story movies.

False (There are four.)

Alice (from Alice in Wonderland) and Wendy Darling (from Peter Pan) are voiced by the same actress.

True (Her name is Kathryn Beaumont.)

Big Hero 6 is set in San Francisco.

False (It is set in the fictional town of San Fransokyo.)

Disney's first movie was Pinocchio.

False (It was Snow White and the Seven Dwarves.)

The first animal that you see in The Lion King is a rhinoceros.

True

Aladdin's two most famous songs are "A Whole New World" and "Can You Feel the Love Tonight".

False ("Can You Feel the Love Tonight" is from The Lion King.)

There is a walrus character in Alice in Wonderland.

True

Fun True or False Questions for Disney Fans

The vultures in The Jungle Book are based on The Beatles.

True

Jasmine is the youngest Disney princess.

False (It is Snow White.)

The lion roars that you hear throughout The Lion King are actually tiger roars.

True

The butler in The Aristocats is named Alfred.

False (His name is Edgar.)

Goofy, Mickey, and Donald Duck can all be seen in the beginning of The Little Mermaid.

True

The Disney title character with the least number of lines is Aurora in Sleeping Beauty.

False (It is Dumbo.)

Pongo and Perdita had 101 puppies.

False (They had 15.)

Ursula's moray eel minions are named Flotsam and Jetsam.

True

The human parent's names in the Lady and the Tramp are Jim and Elizabeth Brown.

True

The pub in Tangled is called The Ugly Duckling.

False (It is The Snugly Duckling.)

Jasmine's pet tiger is named Rajah.

True

Festive Holiday True or False Questions for Kids

We all have our favorite holiday traditions, but how much do your kids know about the days we are celebrating? These true and false questions will surprise, delight, and even frighten you!

The highest grossing Christmas movie is Home Alone.

False (It is The Grinch.)

Cupid is actually the Greek God Eros.

True

John Hancock was the first to sign the Declaration of Independence and he signed the biggest signature.

True

If Punxsutawney Phil sees his shadow, we will have an early spring.

False (This signifies six more weeks of winter.)

Turnips were the original Jack-o'-lanterns, not pumpkins.

True

The first state to make the 4th of July an official holiday was New York.

False (It was Massachusetts.)

The Germans bake gingerbread cookies for Valentine's Day.

True

President Calvin Coolidge was gifted a raccoon to serve for Thanksgiving dinner, but he decided to keep it as a pet instead.

True

The custom of the Easter egg hunt comes from ancient Greece.

False (It was Germany.)

In the early 1900s, the rule of not wearing white after Labor Day did not apply to the wealthy.

True (This rule was rooted in practicality. Unless you could afford post summer vacations, which was something only the wealthy could enjoy, white was frowned upon.)

St. Patrick was born in Dublin, Ireland.

False (He was born in Britain.)

Festive Holiday True or False Questions for Kids

The original Easter hare used to have a naughty and nice list just like Santa Claus.

True (This was a tradition amongst German Lutherans.)

There is an actual holiday that celebrates Krampus, Santa's evil twin (a half-goat and half-demon monster), and it involves chasing naughty children in the street with sticks.

True (This creepy holiday is celebrated in Germany and is called Krampusnacht.)

Thanksgiving used to be a floating holiday and the president decided when America celebrated.

True

Many people who celebrate New Year's Eve in Times Square wear adult diapers for the celebrations.

True (No public toilets are available.)

Mardi Gras is French for "let the good times roll."

False (It is French for 'Fat Tuesday'.)

Santa's postal code is H0H 0H0.

True (Canada's postal service designated this code to make sure children's letters can get to Santa.)

The American flag is flown at half-mast throughout Memorial Day.

False (It is flown at half-mast until noon and then it is raised to the top of the staff until sunset.)

The world's tallest Christmas tree can be found in California.

False (2022's tallest tree was in Oklahoma.)

The TV dinner was inspired by Thanksgiving.

True

Mind Boggling True or False Questions

Some of these are easy and some of them are not. Can you pick out the facts from fiction? Only the true polymaths can pick out all the truths! Let's see if you are one of them!

Quinoa is a grain.

False (It is a seed.)

The deadliest weather condition is flooding.

False (It is heat.)

Stomach acid can dissolve razor blades.

True

There is a hidden chamber behind Lincoln's head in Mount Rushmore.

True

Swimmers don't sweat.

False.

Astronauts can't burp in space.

True

No one knows who invented the fire hydrant and the patent was ironically destroyed in a fire.

True

Babies have no kneecaps.

True

Rotten eggs sink.

False (They float.)

The saltiest body of water on Earth is located in Antarctica.

True

There are more trees on the planet than stars in the sky.

True

Mind Boggling True or False Questions

All paper is made from trees.

False (You can actually buy paper made from calcium carbonate.)

South Africa has three capital cities.

True

The largest state in America is California.

False (It is Alaska.)

There is a town called Booger Hole, West Virginia.

True