

Irregular Comparative Adjectives

Comparative and superlative adjectives are used to compare two or more things.

Most adjectives become comparative and superlative adjectives by adding –er or –est to the end of the word. For example, large becomes larger and largest. However, some adjectives do not follow those rules.

Practice using the following irregular comparative and superlative adjectives in a sentence.

1. (better)

My sister is a better saxophone player than your brother.

2. (worst)

3. (farther)

4. (more)

5. (least)

6. (eldest)

7. (oldest)

8. (worse)

9. (best)

10. (most)

Irregular Comparative Adjectives Answer Key

Comparative and superlative adjectives are used to compare two or more things. Most adjectives become comparative and superlative adjectives by adding –er or –est to the end of the word. For example, large becomes larger and largest. However, some adjectives do not follow those rules. Practice using the following irregular comparative and superlative adjectives in a sentence.

1. (better)

My sister is a better saxophone player than your brother.

2. (worst)

My dog is the worst listener in the world.

3. (farther)

Jen's house is farther from mine than I thought.

4. (more)

There are more kids at my new school than there were at my last school.

5. (least)

Choosing an outfit is the least of my concerns today.

6. (eldest)

I am the eldest grandchild in my family.

7. (oldest)

Out of all my sisters, Tina is the oldest.

8. (worse)

I don't know what's worse, pistachio ice cream or spinach ice cream.

9. (best)

My dad thinks I'm the best singer in the universe.

10. (most)

My team earned the most points in our last game.