

Conjunctions: And, But, Or

Words like and, but and or help combine sentences.
Look at each sentence and the conjunction that is used.

If it is correct, circle the conjunction.

If it is incorrect, cross out the conjunction and write the correct conjunction above it.

Examples: My shirt is red and blue.

~~and~~ but

My shirt is red ~~or~~ I like blue.

1. What would you like for dinner: pizza and hot dogs?
2. I like pizza and only if it is pepperoni.
3. Mom said I could get a toy or a book at the store.
4. A zebra has black or white stripes.
5. It is cold, but we can still play outside.
6. It is hot or sunny outside.
7. My favorite colors are red and yellow.
8. She wants to ride the roller coaster and she is too short.
9. We went to the store but to the park.
10. I do not like spinach or beets.

Conjunctions- And, But, Or Answer Key

Words like and, but and or help combine sentences. Look at each sentence and the conjunction that is used. If it is correct, circle the conjunction. If it is incorrect, cross out the conjunction and write the correct conjunction above it.

1. What would you like for dinner: pizza <sup>or</sup> ~~and~~ hot dogs?
2. I like pizza <sup>but</sup> ~~and~~ only if it is pepperoni.
3. Mom said I could get a toy ~~or~~ a book at the store.
4. A zebra has black <sup>and</sup> ~~or~~ white stripes.
5. It is cold, ~~but~~ we can still play outside.
6. It is hot <sup>and</sup> ~~or~~ sunny outside.
7. My favorite colors are red ~~and~~ yellow.
8. She wants to ride the roller coaster <sup>but</sup> ~~and~~ she is too short.
9. We went to the store <sup>and</sup> ~~but~~ to the park.
10. I do not like spinach ~~or~~ beets.